

Ideas for the Lone Ahmadi on Campus...

My countrymen, a religion which does not inculcate universal compassion is no religion at all. Similarly, a human being without the faculty of compassion is no human at all. (Message of Peace, Ahmad, 1908)

1. Donate books/literature to local school library or media center (e.g. Muslim Sunrise)
2. Donate DVD/CDROM (e.g. KMIV Q & A or PBS Titles) to school library or media center
3. Host a small Islam teach-in on campus for friends
4. Contact a teacher & try to attend their class to explain Islam
5. Host video screening for friends (e.g. Muhammad: Legacy of a Prophet or Islam: Empire of Faith)

♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

6. Write an article to the school newspaper on some topical issue related to Islam
7. Write a letter to the editor of the school newspaper on some topical issue related to Islam
8. Write a letter to the editor of the local town/community newspaper from the standpoint of being a Muslim Youth
9. Write an article to the editor of the local town/community newspaper from the standpoint of being a Muslim Youth
10. Join/Support a school service organization (e.g. Environmental Club, Amnesty International)

♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

11. Join/Support a local social service organization (e.g. Kiwanis, Habitat for Humanity, Blood center)
12. Attend lectures on campus related to Islam, Religion or other issue:
13. Introduce yourself to organizers of religious/interfaith meetings and offer help
14. Start a small reading group. Select books that appeal to your peers as well as Jamaat books for discussion
15. Start a small video club. Select videos/documentaries on Islamic topics (e.g. American Ramadhan or Hajj)