"The success of a nation is dependent on its youth. If the youth of a nation become true custodians of its traditions then that nation can survive for centuries. However, if the generations of the future are negligent then a nation can never achieve success and even the progress it makes can be transformed into failure."

Hazrat Khalifatul Masih II (rh), Founder of MKA

"There are twelve characteristics of a true Khadim: 1) high morals, 2) patience, 3) kindness, 4) modesty, 5) service, 6) humbleness, 7) humility, 8) sympathy towards Allah's creation, 9) self-reflection, 10) making an honest living, 11) truthfulness, and 12) piety."--Hazrat Khalifatul Masih III (rh), Mashl-e-Rah, Vol. II, p.246-258
